The image displays two screenshots of the Salesforce user interface, specifically the 'Leads' section. The top screenshot shows the 'New' lead creation process, with a green toast message at the top stating 'Lead "Mr. Test Demo" was created.' The bottom screenshot shows the same lead record, 'Mr. Test Demo', with the 'Activity' tab selected. The 'Activity' tab shows a 'Log a Call' button and a 'Recap your call...' text box. The 'Related' section on the right indicates 'We found no potential duplicates of this Lead.' and 'Campaign History (0)'. The interface includes a navigation bar with tabs like Sales, Home, Chatter, Groups, Files, and Leads. The top of the interface shows the user's name 'Sandbox: trialsbx1' and a search bar.
